Owing to important engagements in southern California, Miss Olga Steebe will be unable to give her recital here tomorrow night, as announced.

Miss Anna Behrens, who has been a guest at El Nido, Carmel Highlands, departed for New York last week.

Jeannette Hoagland, Etty Shavitch, and others of the Woodland Dancers, are to perform at Del Monte tonight.

Three hundred feet of protected fire hose, recently purchased by the city trustees, has arrived here, and will be placed where it can be properly cared for.

Lloyd Osborne, the novelist, and his wife, ran down from Gilroy to spend the week-end. They were guests at the Hopper home.

The local chapter of the Red Cross desires to make public acknowledgement of Mrs. Conway Evans' contribution to the organization.

Luduvic Bremner is about town, greeting his nmmerous friends. He has been away for about a year. He has been traveling extensively.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Stewart and the family of L. E. Payne leave next week on a ten days' camping trip in the nearby mountains.

Carmel's summer population is reduced by five with the departure this week of the Hooper family. Notwithstanding that they spent a month longer than usual here, they left reluctantly.

By order of the postmaster general, letters, postcards and printed matter mailed in the United States for transmission to the United States expeditionary forces in Europe will be accepted at ordinary domestic postage rates.

Mrs. J. V. Christy's harp recital, on Tuesday evening, was enjoyed by many. Other instruments we have always with us, so that this was a novelty.

A Carmel man, name unknown was marooned on a rock near Pebble Beach for several hours Monday afternoon. He was rescued by the glass-bottom boatman. Mussels! Never again!

The annual art students' exhibition at Arts and Crafts Hall begins tomorrow, and will be open to the public every afternoon up to and including next Saturday.

Miss Charlotte Kett and Miss Grace Hamilton, regular Carmelites, departed for Berkeley on Sunday. They may spend the year-end holidays here.

The Carmel city trustees will hold their monthly meeting at the City Hall next Tuesday night.

To date the Monterey Co. Exemption Board has exempted from service the following Carmel men: John A. Bowen, Walter M. Basham, Harris D. Comings, Roy E. Meadows, Earl E. Olds. The government, however, still has a string on these men.

The regular monthly meeting of the Carmel Red Cross chapter will be held at the City Hall at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The officers would like a full attendance.

Lewie Lewis is batching just now, his wife and child having left last week for a month's visit at her home in Utah.

The Harthorne family and Mr. D. C. A. Putney departed for Long Beach, via the Yosemite, by motor last Saturday. The Harthornes expect to be back here before the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Phil S. Brown and daughter, Bernice of Visalia, are visiting Mrs. George F. Marion and Mrs. A. C. Daly, at Gordon cottage.

Visalia is also represented by the presence of Mrs. Benjamin Parker and daughter and Mrs. William Tipton.

For summer visitors, The Pine Cone three months for 40 cents.

The Supervisors are to be commended for their action in reappointing to the position as county Librarian Miss Anna Hadden. Miss Hadden is on of the best librarians in the west.

Harry Kogle has arrived safely at Batavia, N. Y., where he is at present making his home with his sister.

Hancock-Eichrodt

Many of Miss Caroline Hancock's friends here will be surprised to learn that she was married last week in San Francisco to Mr. Max Eichrodt. Only a few intimate friends were present. Judge Johnson performed the ceremony. The bride wore a gown of heavy gray silk, with silver trimmings and white roses. She cut the cake and obtained the ring.

Mr. and Mrs. Eichrodt will for the present reside at 311 Perria street, San Francisco, where they will be pleased to meet their friends.

Brought Down To Mother Earth

Little did Sir James M. Barrie dream, when he wrote and staged "Peter Pan," that some time, away out in California, a little group of talented children would capture his beloved Peter and bring him down to earth.

That is just what the members of Carmel-by-the-Sea's Star Theatre Club did before a large crowd at the Forest Theatre last Friday night.

The revised story goes something like this:

A street child, one Smith, is taken to the theatre by a benevolent lady and witnesses "Peter Pan." The boy returns to his companions, tells them the story of Peter, and fills them all with a great desire for the country, where are the birds and the flowers and joy.

In the second act we see the same children in the country, realizing and enjoying to the full the clean open fields and the wonders of nature.

This simple little tale, as presented by our children, certainly "got over," not only to the little ones in the audience but to their elders as well.

Other numbers on the program included novel dances, recitations, and a burlesque on this summer's plays.

The large attendance and light expenses enabled the club to turn over to the Red Cross a goodly sum.

La Playa News Notes

Dr. and Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Signor motored to Posts recently, fording the Big Sur. Scenically it was a wonderful trip, but a thriller as to steep grades.

Mrs. Maude Arndt entertained Mrs. Godwin Mueth, Mrs. Signor, and Mrs. Collis at a delightful and perfectly served tea Saturday afternoon at the Blue Bird

La Playa was largely represented at the "Peter Pan Smith" performance, and the guests marvelled at the versatality of the children.

The son of Mrs. Mary A. Young, who is a prominent newspaperman, has been made an officer of a Boston regiment, giving up a lucrative position to serve his country.

There is great rivalry as to who is to who is to win the angler's medal. Mr. Laack, Harrison and Frederick Godwin, with Douglas Parshall, are still in the lead.

Mr. and Mrs. Laack entertained at a Point Lobos lunch party last Sunday. Those in the party were: Mrs. Helen C. Mueth, Mrs. Lancing, Miss Green, Miss O'Sullivan, Miss Boland, and Harrison and Frederick Godwin, and Miss Patricia.

Mrs. Thayer and Mrs. Varrelman, leaving Tuesday for their New Jersey home, entertained at dinner Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Watts, Miss Cora Burns, and Miss Kremm. Mrs. Thayer has purchased paintings by Mr. Watts, Mr. Silva, and Miss K. Herrick.

Recent arrivals:

San Francisco—Mrs. L. J. Wilson, Dr. Alice Rohdes, Mrs. G. L. Lancing, Dr. A. L. Gates, Mrs. John McKeon, Miss Foster, J. J. Anderson.

Palo Alto—Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Wheeler, Ann B. Wheeler, Mlle. Siebenthal, Mrs. Charles Van Norden, Landa and Margaret Van Norden.

Berkeley—Mr and Mrs. Blackhall, Master Blackhall, Greta Pack.

New York—Mrs. Rohde, Mrs D. Van Slyke.

Los Angeles—E. L. Stoltenberg.

WEEKLY GREETING

To do anything because others do it, and not because the thing is good, or kind, or honest in its own right, is to resign all moral control and captaincy upon yourself, and go post-haste to the devil with the greater number.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

HELP YOUR TOWN

Everybody can do something for his town. His capital may be limited—in fact he may have no capital at all and yet be a strong factor in the production of bustle, and "git up and git." What is to hinder you from offering a word of encouragement to every undertaking? What is to hinder you from speaking well of your own town on all occassion? What will it cost you? It is the manners of the people that make them loved and respected. What trouble can there be in meeting a stranger kindly and extending to him a warm hand of cordiality, and informing him that the doors of the city are thrown open to him, with an invitation to abide within? It is just easy enough to tell all strangers that you have the best people in the world, and prove it by carrying them around and giving them an introduction. It is not the most wealthy that do the most for the town or city in which they dwell.

Children's Box Goes to Belgium

The children of Carmel were fortunate last Friday in having Miss Blanche Cahen of San Francisco address them at the public school.

Miss Cahen's ideal is one of service to the needy of all nations. For the past three years she has dedicated herself to the work of relief, and has received a medal from the French government for her services.

This lady knows how to present her subject simply and convincingly. She told the children of the manner in which Queen Elizabeth of Belgium cares for 80,000 men, women and children crowded together into seventeen square miles in free Belgium.

Miss Cahen is the official representative of the Queen, and is collecting supplies and clothing, especially for children in the warring countries, many of whom have only newspapers to cover them.

The children decided to send their Christmas box to Belgium, and Miss Cahen superintended its packing on Saturday. The children also selected one of their number to write to the Queen.

The box, to which young and old contributed, contained rice, beans, chocolate, ninety - six stockings filled with toys, clothing, etc.

Thanks to the kindness of Rev. S. C. Thomas, Miss Cahen spoke also at the Methodist Church on on Sunday, describing her work for France, and reading letters from grateful mothers and children

These shipments go through direct by American transports to societies and individuals with whom Miss Cahen is in touch. She appeals especially for milk, clothing, sums of money, however small.

Those desiring to contribute may do so at the Junior Relief workroom on Ocean avenue, Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

Loyalty

This is no time to quibble or to fool;
To argue over who was wrong, or who right;
To measure fealty with a worn foot-rule;
To ask: "Shall we keep still or shall we fight?"
The clock of fate has struck; the hour is here:
War is upon us now, not far away;
One question only rises, clarion clear;
"How may I serve my country, day by day?".

Not all of us may join the khakied throng
Of those who answer and go forth to stem
The tide of war. But we can all be strong
And steady in one loyalty to them!
Not with unfettered thought, or tongue let loose
In bitterness or pain—a childish game!
But with a faith, untroubled by abuse,
That honors those who put the rest to shame!

There is no middle ground on which to stand;
We've done with useless pro-and-con debates;
The one-time friend, so welcome in this land,
Has turned upon us at our very gates.
There is no way, with honor, to stand back—
Real patriotism isn't cool—then hot;
You can not trim the flag to fit your lack;
You are Americans—or else you're not! —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Musicians Going Away

The colony of eminent musical artists and their families, which has been in Carmel for several months, residing in cottages in the neighborhood of The Norwood, will begin to disperse this week. Some go to San Francisco, others to southern California, and several travel to New York.

All has not been play during the musicians' vacation here. Much time has been spent in rehearsal. Right now the San Francisco Chamber Music Society is ready to begin its concert season of classical and modern programs. The members of this organization are: Louis Persinger, first violin; Louis W. Ford, second violin; Nathan Firestone, viola; Horace Britt, cello; Gyula Ormay, piano; Elias M. Hecht, flutist.

On September 26 the organization plays at San Jose under the direction of Warren D. Allen.

No One Saw the Green Stockings

"Married at Last," "Order Out of Chaos." "Mysterious Smith." Any of the foregoing would have been adequate titles for Mason's English comedy, presented at Arts and Crafts Hall last Thursday evening. For all that was seen of green stockings, the play might have been advertised as "Pink Slippers."

However, the above has nothing to do with the excellence of the performance produced by Mrs. C. H. Waterman. The manner in which she placed twelve persons on the small stage at one time and have them appear at ease and uncrowded, was a marvel of stage management. And, too, she must have administered to her actors some sort of a memory powder, for, it is said, not a single line was omitted.

The Pine Cone is commissioned by many to request Mrs. Waterman to put on another comedy before leaving here.

The entire evening's entertainment, which included a dance by the little Taneyhill girl and a "Chalk Talk" by Hamilton Wolf, was fully worth the price of admission, and the Red Cross will make good use of the money.

Joint Piano Recital

Tomorrow evening the weekly recital at the Carmel Schoo of Music will feature work for two pianos, and a program of rare beauty and novelty is announced.

Howard H. Hanson, head of the Theory Department in the College of the Pacific Conservatory of Music, will be associated with Warren D. Allen, Dean of the Conservatory, in a program, half of which will be devoted to original works by the former.

Mr. Hanson will play his Concerto in C minor, which met with such instant approval at the annual May Festival in San Jose, and his Symphonic Legend will be played for the first time in public.

In addition, the artists will play two dainty numbers from "The Cnildreu's Corner," by Debussey, and four fascinating selections from Arensky's Silhouettes and Suite for two pianos, entitled "The Savant," "Romance," "Waltz," and "The Clown."

The fifth concert will be given on Friday evening of next week by Mr. Alexander Saslavsky, Concert master of the New York Symphony Orchestra, and Mr. Allen. The Vitali Chaeonne and two immortal sonatas by Grieg and Cesar Franck are in preparation.

ON THE TRAIL OF SLACKERS

Sheriff Wm. Nesbitt returned recently from a trip down the coast. He and his deputies are having quite a time seeking military slackers. A lot of chaps from the cities have made up their minds to avoid service in the army at all costs, and have taken to the tall timber and high brush.

The wild and almost inaccessable recesses of the Santa Lucia mountains, some miles south of Carmel, offer excellent retreats for these fellows, but they are finding it difficult to avoid the sheriff and his men.

Unwrapped and unaddressed magazines, when intended for the U. S. Expeditionary forces in in Europe, will be accepted for mailing at the rate of 1 cent per copy regardless of weight, when mailed by others than the publishers.

Our Weekly Recipe

RICE CROQUETTES.

One pound of rice, one quart of cold water, one-half pint of milk, three teasponfuls of salt, youlk of two eggs, fiue bread crumbs. Wash the rice thoroughly, put in a saucepan with the water, milk and salt; let boil until the water and milk are absorbed; then set aside to cool; grate or roll the bread (should be as fine as corn meal); beat the yolks; have the lard heating. Then make the rice into small croquettes, with smooth surface, roll them in the egg and then in the bread crumbs lay in the frying basket and plunge into the hot lard, having first tested the heat with a bit of bread. When the croquettes are a golden brown, lift the basket, let it drain about a minute, then serve on a platter or in a vegetable dish.

CATTLE BRANDED MUST BE RECORDED

The attention of the dairy and stock men of this section is called to the new legislation passed by the last legislature, which carries with it the possibility of annulment of existing cattle brands if not properly observed within the next eight months.

The new laws specify that the owner of any mark or brand must notify the county recorder of his intention to continue the use of such mark or brand. Any person failing to do so shall lose all right and title to any distinguishing mark heretofore used by them.

The reason for this legislation is due to the similarity of brands, which have in the past caused many cases of litigation.

If your business is in Carmel have your Printing done at the Pine Cone Press.
